

Parental Consent Form

Dear Parent:

Your child has expressed an interest in joining the IBWAA, a membership organization of baseball writers and content creators, which strives to serve the baseball writing community by increasing visibility, networking, and other opportunities for its members. Anyone 16 or older is permitted to join, but for those members under the age of 18, we ask that a parent consent to their participation. We collect only minimal information – a name, website or other location where the members writing or other baseball content can be found (if the member maintains such a site), an email address, and social media contact information, such as a twitter handle (if the member wants to provide one), all of which will be listed in our online member directory (unless the member asks that some or all of that information not be included in the directory). If the member wants to receive a membership card, they will need to provide a mailing address to which we can send the card, although we do not publish such information. Be advised that there is a membership fee to join.

You can read about who we are, and what we do, at www.ibwaa.com. If you have any questions, you can contact us at ibwaa2020@gmail.com, or @ibwaa on Twitter.

If you consent to your child joining the IBWAA, please complete the following and sign below. We will send you an email to confirm your permission:
